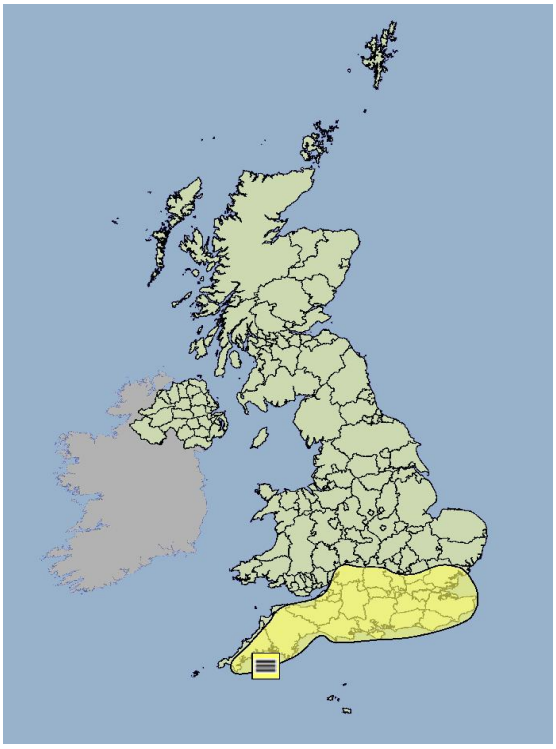
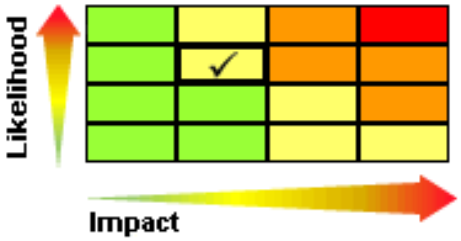
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Under clearing skies, patchy fog is expected to develop during Wednesday evening, initially in rural areas, but becoming more extensive across southern parts of England overnight, both at low levels and on hills. Visibilities will be very variable, but as low as 50-100 metres in places.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 19:00 on Wed, 26th Oct 2016 until 10:00 on Thu, 27th Oct 2016

Patches of fog are likely to form readily in rural areas during Wednesday evening, becoming more widespread and locally dense overnight and at first on Thursday morning.

Please be aware that low visibility could lead to extended journey times and difficult driving conditions in places.
